Xianda College of Economics and Humanities, Shanghai International Studies University, was established in 2004 and was one of the first full-time independent institutions of higher education in Shanghai approved by the Ministry of Education. It now has two campuses: Hongkou and Chongming. Hongkou Campus is located in the heart of northeast downtown in Shanghai, adjacent to Shanghai International Studies University, whereas Chongming Campus is situated in Chenjia Town, Chongming District, with a beautiful neoclassical Tuscan style architecture and unique ecological environment complementing each other.

Benefiting from the support of the excellent teaching faculty and expertise in foreign language teaching and research of Shanghai International Studies University, we have built a talent cultivation system. It lays a strong emphasis on language learning, economics subjects and coordinated development of other disciplines (professional learning and English). Currently, it offers 22 undergraduate programs in six main fields of literature, law, economics, management, education and art, with approximately 8000 full-time undergraduate students.

Adhering to the open mode of running the college, we take the path of globalization of higher education by introducing advanced educational concepts and management modes adopted in leading domestic and foreign universities. We have introduced talented returnees, accounting for more than 50% of the teaching faculty, and established solid, friendly and cooperative partnerships with over 100 prestigious universities in 16 countries and regions, including the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, Australia, Germany, France, Spain, Switzerland, Japan, Korea, Egypt, Jordan, the United Arab Emirates, Singapore, Hong Kong, China and Taiwan, China. Through programs of credit transfer, co-operative internship, student exchange, government scholarship, dual bachelor's degrees and combined bachelor's and master's degree programs, it offers students with a variety of overseas opportunities to involve them in different international contexts to develop their global outlook and to improve their cross-
